Service of Remembrance ~January 1, 2012 The Sacrament of Communion will be celebrated

It provides our church family an opportunity to remember loved ones who have gone to be with the Lord in 2011.

“Blessed are those who die in the Lord...blessed indeed, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.” Revelation 14:13

This scripture offers comfort and hope that our loved ones are secure in the love of the Lord.

Join us for a special worship service. Worship will be at the regular times of 8:30 & 11:00 AM.

Are your kids planning on going to summer camp? Interested in fundraising and fellowship? Join the “Kids for Camp” committee and participate—we will be selling luminaries to our neighbors and at the Laser Show December 16th and December 17th.

If interested, contact the church office at 724-745-0800.
